Fall Wacky & Wonderful Celebrations

SEPTEMBER

Do Something GRAND

September 13th, Grandparents Day

Grandparents are often unsung heroes. Here are grand ideas on how to recognize your loved ones:

- ♥ Swap your Facebook profile picture with one of you with your grandparents or grandkids
- ♥ Try a new activity or share a hobby with a loved one to bring generations together. Perhaps guitar lessons at Sweet Music — call Jay at (732) 905-9095 for more info
- ♥ Teach “old-timey” card games like gin rummy or bridge to your “grands”
- ♥ Do something GRAND in your community: volunteering for a local nonprofit; organize “Discount Day” at local restaurants or coffee shops for intergenerational get-togethers; share your expertise by lecturing at the local library

Let Her Know She's the Best!

September 20th, Wife Appreciation Day

Betcha you hadn't heard of this special day...and, there's even a National Husband's Day, but that's in April!

Howell Plaza has loads of stores that have the perfect gifts to celebrate, including bouquets from Edible Arrangements.

To order, call (732) 730-0878.

DID YOU KNOW...

September is National Pizza Month (the 5th is Pizza Day)
Try a different one each day!
Check out Nonno's Pizza specials at www.nonnospizzahowell.com or call (732) 367-3599.

Howdy Neighbor!

It started in 1978 and ever since then neighbors have been reaching out to each other in friendship.

To start up your creative thinking, here are a few ideas:

- Consider organizing a neighborhood service project for the morning, followed by fun gathering later in the day
- Run a few errands for your neighbors or do a simple fix-it project that they can't manage, especially if they are elderly or have been ill
- Host a book swap to honor the day
- Surprise your neighbors with some homemade goodies or order a savory Philly Pretzel Factory mini twists platter! Call (732) 994-5554 to order.
